

Year 4: What impact did the Romans have on Britain?

Knowledge Organiser

Subject Specific Vocabulary
Roman Empire	The name used for the land that was controlled by the Romans, including parts of Europe, Middle East and North Africa
Boudicca	A member of the Iceni. A British Celt warrior queen who led the revolt against the Roman Invasion to Britain.
Roman Baths	Public baths where people came to socialise. The Roman baths were the beginning of central heating in Britain.
Central Heating	A form of heating, invented by the Romans in Britain. Nowadays, radiators are heated using central heating.
Hadrian's Wall	A wall built by the... near the boarder of England and Scotland to prevent the Romans invading further.
Iceni	A tribe of Celts. Boudicca belonged to this tribe who successful fought off the first Roman invasion.
Mosaic	A pattern often used on Roman floors made of small pieces of stone to create an image
Julius Caesar	One of the most famous emperors of Rome who was important in the rise of the powerful Roman Empire

Sticky Roman knowledge

The Romans first invade Britain in 55BC but they have to return to Rome after a failed invasion.

The Roman Empire collapses 455AD.

The Romans created central heating, something which is still used in our houses today!

Hadrian's wall was constructed to create a border between what is now known as England and Scotland in 122AD.

