

Art (sculpture): Andy Goldsworthy

Sticky Knowledge

Key Knowledge

Andy Goldsworthy is a British artist known for his sculptures and photography.

He makes sculptures from natural materials including leaves, twigs, pebbles, ice, flowers, grass and pine cones. Natural materials can change and decay so his work does not last forever.

He has made his artworks in forests, fields, cities and lakes. They are known as land art.

Goldsworthy's art makes us think about the world around us and how nature is art.

Andy Goldsworthy

Born: 1956

A British artist known for his sculptures and photographs. His art is created using the natural materials around him.

Key Vocabulary

sculpture

A 3D artwork that can be created from any material.

Land art

Art made outside from the natural materials in the area.

Natural materials

Things that we find in nature that are not man made like leaves, twigs, rocks, grass and flowers

decay

When a material changes and breaks down over time.

composition

The way a creative piece of work is put together

Skills: I can...

... chose and collect interesting materials to create artworks.

... observe what is around me and take inspiration from it.

... create a composition that considers line space, shape and form

... position objects and materials with precision to create an overall effect.

Good artists ...

Create

Envy

Good artists ...

Observe and respond

Good artists ...

Experiment and explore

Good artists ...

Record ideas

Good artists ...

Reflect and refine

